WHAT ELSE WOULD I DO?

A person in a white robe stands in a field of crosses at sunset. The background is a warm, golden glow from the setting sun, with several crosses visible in the distance. The person is seen from behind, looking towards the horizon.

I left my glorious throne because of you. I humbled myself unto death. I was despised and rejected by men. I became a man of sorrows, acquainted with grief. I was not esteemed by men, the prince of peace. I bore your griefs and carried your sorrows. I was wounded for your transgressions and was bruised for your iniquities.

The chastisement of your peace was upon me. I carried the iniquity of humanity. I was oppressed and afflicted. I was brought as a lamb to the slaughter and as a sheep before her shearers, yet I opened not my mouth. I was cut off from the land of the living. I had done no violence, neither was any deceit found in my mouth, yet I took all the punishment for you. I had a choice to keep my life or to die for you, but I chose to die. I chose death because I love you.

What else do you want me to do?

I have conquered captivity and bestowed gifts upon you (Ephesians 4:8). My beloved, I love you deeply.

I persevered through hardship for your sake, so that you may receive God's eternal gift. Embrace my offering freely; entrust your life to me, I, the Lord Jesus, invite you to come to me and surrender your life.

Allow me to support you. I possess the peace you yearn for and the abundance you pursue. I am the All in All. Anyone who believes in me will never face shame (Romans 10:11). This is the Word of God, your creator. May peace be upon you.

Would you please take a moment to say these words of prayer with me?

"God, thank you for granting me the power to become your child. I believe that Jesus is your son who came to this world for me, and I accept him today as my Lord and Saviour. Thank you for forgiving my sins and freeing me from the power of sin and the devil. I accept the gift of your Holy Spirit with gratitude. In Jesus' name, I pray. Amen."

Welcome to a life of peace and joy in Christ!
